

Two Costa Rican girls are coming to Hochman for treatment for hemangiomas this week.

Another 35 children in Costa Rica are waiting for treatment, as well as more children in Turkey.

Levent Itku said he wanted to thank all of the people who had helped his family, including Hochman, Dwight, the Ronald McDonald House and the Turkish community in Charleston, including Otay and Carol Arkok, who also helped with translation and took the family to dinner and shopping.

Dwight said at a time when Muslims and Jews are often in conflict, "here we have a marvelous example of interfaith cooperation . . . We have a marvelous man of one faith helping this needy child of another faith."

Hochman said that had never crossed his mind.

"I didn't even think about it until Patricia said, 'Isn't it wonderful that a Jewish doctor is treating a Muslim child?'" he said. "These people need help, and if we have the expertise, it's a privilege to help take care of them."

"These families endure so much. It feels good to be able to change that."●
